

Last Hope Veterinary Assistance Program for Pet Owners

(Directions: To those applying for funds through this Last Hope program, please print this downloadable application, fill it out and mail it to the address at the end.)

July 2019

Through the generosity of the Banfield Foundation of Portland, Oregon and the Charles Free Fund, LAST HOPE Animal Rescue is able to assist the Long Island pet-owning community with limited financial assistance for veterinary care. You must verify your financial need by submitting appropriate documentation, such as proof of disability, Medicaid card, unemployment card or driver's license (to confirm age for seniors). We consider a senior to be 65 years of age for this program.

To begin, please complete the brief questionnaire below. Then to ensure confidentiality, mail it in an envelope to the Last Hope address at the end of this form, as soon as possible. We will review you request and get back to you via telephone or email within 10 days. If your pet's situation is an emergency, please contact us at 631-425-1884 and state your need in concise detail. In order to obtain this assistance, you must prove that you qualify.
